

Marking 150 years since the arrival of the American Black ship in Japan

Masters' Series I

Interchurch Center

presents

Noon-Time Intercultural Concert

by

INOUE CHAMBER ENSEMBLE

featuring

Shakuhachi Master, Mr. Yoshio Kurahashi

December 1, 2004

12:00 Noon

Address: 475 Riverside Drive, NYC(bet. 119 -120 Sts.), Bus: #5 on Riverside Drive or #104 & #4 on Broadway, Subways: #1 & #9 - get off at 116 Street Stop.

Program:

- “ Tsuru no Sugomori ” Japanese traditional shakuhachi solo music
“ Zan Un ” for shakuhachi and clarinet David Loeb
“ Dialogue ” for shakuhachi, percussion and piano.....Toshio Ozaki

Performing Artists:

Yoshio Kurahashi, shakuhachi
Ayako Oshima, clarinet
Mathew Gold, percussions
Kazuko Inoue, piano & Music Director

State of the Arts

Admission: Free

This concert is made possible, in part, with funds from New York State Council on the Arts (since 1986), a State Agency; as well as from The Mitsui (USA) Foundation (s.1996) Foundation (s.1996), Japanese Chamber of Commerce & Industry of New York (s.2002), Toyota Motor North America, Inc.(s. 2004), Sumitomo Corporation of America (s.1992).

For further information, please call: Ms. Inoue, tel: -212-864-6459